County Has Clear Duty, Power to Avoid 3% Assessment Hike for All Taxpayers

Taxpayers no doubt are breathing a sigh of relief over the 1.0309 tentative assessment multiplier announced this week by the Illinois Department of Revenue for Madison county. It could have been worse.

could have been worse.

But county officials, including the county treasurer and the board of review, should take full advantage of the opportunity offered to keep the '1' multiplier that has been received here for many years. Since the 3% hike is only tentative, immediate action at the county level can provide a remedy before the multiplier becomes final.

The story of Christmas, 1967 years old and yet ever new, will be in the hearts and minds of Quad-Cityans this weekend as they complete their holiday preparations, attend church services and gather with loved ones about colorfully decorated trees and dinner about colorfully decorated trees and dinner tables.

The happiest holiday of the year is tempered by the knowledge of warfare in a far off land, directly affecting many local families.

But the observance of a "allent night, holy night," in another far off land nearly 20 centuries ago focuses thoughts on the Christmas message of "peace on earth, good will toward men," and renews faith that it can be achieved.

Christmas this year prompts each of us to look beyond his own home to the broader meaning. Such holiday wishes exceed specific gifts and involve the hope for universal recognition of the need to serve God — justice and freedom for all mankind — health — family — friends — meaningful work — laughter — service to others — strength to bear sorrow — the will to place principle above expedience.

None can know how soon there will be

None can know how soon there will be peace, but religious beliefs enable us to live each day to the fullest, strengthened by confidence in the future.

With love and courage and dedication to seek fulfillment and abundance for all people, Quad-Cityans look forward eagerly and joyously to Christmas and the days that will follow.

man Johnson wanted to know why the city engineering firm, Research Planning & Design, St. Louis, had never been paid its total bill of about $200 for planning special improvement projects. He pointed out the bill had been approved by the council over a month ago, but the check had not been signed by the mayor.

over a month ago, but the check had not been signed by the mm Mayor's Opinion Partney and he wanted to talk to the engineers before he signed it, because he felt the designs for work along Waterman avenue should have been under motor fuel tax rather man the city's general fund. "He's here right now. Talk to him," Johnson told the mayor opiniting to Rementh Kleschen and the mayor gave no indication that he would confer at that moment! Johnson continued, "It's up to the council to designate motor fuel tax projects, You're holding up this money for an unjust reason. We don't want to unjust reason, we don't want to unjust reason, we don't want to unjust reason, we mandamus suit to get the check signed."
